Embassy Blue Lantern action officer recently received a follow-up letter concerning license application 05-943844 from Patrick Bernard of MBDA Missile Systems, Office for Management of Contracts. Our informal translation follows:

We wish to inform you that the nine accelerometers 7270A-200K ordered from Bruel and Kjaer, 26 rue du Champoreux, BP 33, 91541 Mennecy cedex, France, which still have not been delivered, will not be used for the SCALP EG program, as mentioned our letter of April 4, 2005. We would like to clarify that this equipment will be used in testing equipment for the GMLRS program, as we declared in the "End User Statement Military End User" given to the supplier, Bruel and Kjaer, on September 2, 2005.
